

2009

MINI-VET SCHOOL

Where people and science meet!
 In the University at Buffalo's Mini-Veterinary Program

Thursday evening lectures from 7 to 9 p.m.

Main Street Campus
 Farber Hall, Room 101

Presented by

Your veterinarian.
 Your other family doctor.

Program brought to you by the Niagara Frontier Veterinary Society and the University at Buffalo's School of Medicine and Biomedical Sciences sponsored by the Davis Foundation.

October 1, 2009
Inside Aquatics
Comparative Aquatic Animal Anatomy
 Ed Latson, MS, DVM

Zoo Fever
Terrestrial Animal Anatomy
 Kurt Volle, DVM

October 8, 2009
Hormones Gone Wild
Endocrinology
 Wm James Brown, MS, DVM

Cutting Out Cancer
Cancer Surgery
 James Fingerth, DVM, DACVS

October 15, 2009
Scalpel, please
Surgery
 Rene vanEe, DVM, DACVS

Can You See Me Now?
Veterinary Ophthalmology
 Erin Champagne, DVM, DACVO

October 22, 2009
Beyond Come, Sit, Stay
Behavioral Veterinary Medicine
 Susan Sickels, DVM

Sharing Diseases – People & Animals
Zoonotic Diseases
 Alan Lesse, MD

October 29, 2009
Fascinating Fish Findings
Aquatic Medicine

Helen Roberts, DVM

Beyond Furry Friends
Exotic Pets and Their Care

Alexandra Adamcak, DVM, DACVP

Series registration is $50 per person. Individual dates are $20. (reduced rates for students & seniors)

To register call 829-2196 or visit <http://apps.med.buffalo.edu/minimed>

GOLD SPONSORS

SILVER SPONSORS

